

Retrieval

Touch the answer in the text before you fish it out.

- Where do you need to look for the answers?
- How can you find the answers?
- What should you do when you find the answer to your question/s?
- How do you know what the question is asking you?
- What clues do questions give you?
- What does 'retrieve' mean?
- Take your time, you can't rush this skill.

Summarising

Find and talk about the text's main points.
you fish it out.

- Tell someone what happened at the beginning or middle or end of the book in less than 20 words.
- If you had a non-fiction book, what was the key fact/s you learnt?
- What was the most important thing you read in the text?
- What does the word 'summarise' mean?
- What is the main point of the text, and what are the added details?
- Write a brief summary or sentence next to long paragraphs to remind you of its main point.