

Year 3 Curriculum Map 2023-2024

|                 | English                                                 | Maths                                                               | Science            | History                      | Geography   | D.T.               | Computing                                                                     | Art                                            | Italian                    | R.E. Discovery                | Music Charanga                               | P.S.H.E       | P.E.                              |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|------------------------------|-------------|--------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|---------------|-----------------------------------|
| Autumn 1 | Inspirational People (Amelia Earhart)                   | Place ValueAddition and Subtraction                         | Rocks and soils    | Stone Age and the Bronze Age |             | Shelters           | How computers work                                                            |                                                | Greetings/days of the week | Hinduism: Diwali              | Developing Notation skills                   | VIPS          | GymnasticsFootball        |
| Autumn 2 | The True Story Of The Three Little Pigs by Jon Scieszka | Addition and SubtractionMultiplication and Division         | Human Skeleton     |                              | The UK      |                    | Debug programmes                                                              | Exploring colour and expressionism (Kandinsky) | Numbers                    | Christmas                     | Enjoying Improvisation                       | Be yourself   | DanceNetball              |
| Spring 1 | The Legend of King Arthur                               | Multiplication and DivisionMeasurement length and perimeter | Food               | The Iron Age (Celts)         |             | Pop-up story books | To use technology safely                                                      |                                                | Colours                    | Christianity- Jesus' miracles | Composing using your imagination (Recorders) | One world     | Swimming                          |
| Spring 2 | Charlie And The Chocolate Factory by Roahl Dahl         | FractionsMeasurement- mass and capacity                     | Forces and magnets |                              | Rainforests |                    | To design, write and debug programmes                                         | Landscapes and the local area (Turner)         | Food                       | Christianity- Easter          | Sharing musical experiences (Recorders)      | Money Matters | GymnasticsCricket             |
| Summer 1 | We're Going To Find A Monster by Malorie Blackman       | FractionsMoneyTime                                  | Plants             |                              |             | Sensational salads | To select, use and combine a variety of software to design a range of content |                                                | Animals                    | Hindu beliefs                 | Learning more about musical styles           | Safety First  | AthleticsFootballRounders |

|                 |                                |                             |                   |  |               |  |                                                |                               |        |                      |                              |            |                            |
|-----------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------------|-------------------|--|---------------|--|------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|--------|----------------------|------------------------------|------------|----------------------------|
| Summer 2 | Rhyming and performance poetry | TimeShapeStatistics | Light and shadows |  | Extreme Earth |  | To use technology respectfully and responsibly | Rangoli patterns (Indian Art) | Review | Hinduism: Pilgrimage | Recognising different sounds | Growing up | Tennis skillsAthletics |
|-----------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------------|-------------------|--|---------------|--|------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|--------|----------------------|------------------------------|------------|----------------------------|