New and exciting summer play adventures for the borough's children

Children across Windsor and Maidenhead are set for a summer of adventure, imagination and inclusive play, as two of the borough's most popular play parks undergo high quality transformations.

Work begins in Windsor on 18 May at Clewer Memorial's much loved pirate-themed play park, followed on 1 June at Oaken Grove's wildlife-themed park in Maidenhead. Both will reopen in time for the summer holidays, ready to welcome families back to vibrant and modern spaces designed for exploration and fun.

The refurbished parks will also feature a range of accessible and sensory equipment, ensuring children with a wide range of disabilities can play, explore and socialise alongside their friends - making the spaces more inclusive.

These improvements mark the start of a wider programme to renew a number of the borough's play parks, supporting the council's ambition to create a cleaner, greener, and safer borough.

Further refurbishments are planned later this year at Boyn Grove, Grenfell and Vansittart play parks. Families are invited to help shape the designs ahead of this work. The council's parks team will be at these three sites during half-term week, starting 25 May, to engage with families to gather feedback. An online survey is also on RBWM Together until 7 June.

The programme also includes refurbishing the skate park at Kidwells, with work scheduled to begin later this summer, guided again by feedback from the people who use it.

Where is Harry Potter!?

Attention Brickies Master Builders! A crisis has hit the Wizarding World and we need your help.

At Hogwarts School of Witchcraft & Wizardry, The Great Hall is buzzing with whispers between students and teachers alike. Harry Potter has vanished!

Harry's wand was found on the edge of the Forbidden Forest, and a trail of mysterious LEGO studs led us deep into the trees' gloomy shadows. Has he been whisked away by a hippogriff? Did a magical experiment with a mandrake go wrong?

This May half term, join Brickies for our 2-hour Harry Potter inspired LEGO Event. Children will put their building skills to the test to overcome 3 challenges:

- Building a magical vehicle
- Create a Mythical Monster
- Re-construct Hogwarts School

The clock is ticking, and the magic is in your hands. Accio Brickies Builders & secure your spot today! (Muggles are welcome too)
